

Girl Aviatix Adds More Laurels to Her Crown

Miss Katherine Stinson, the only woman in the world looping the loop and flying upside down, will perform the same feats of aerial navigation that have made her the talk of the world, looping the loop, flying upside down, the tail slide, tango spirals and other sensational stunts in which she defies the laws of gravity, when she appears here at Springbrook park next Sunday.

In conclusion, Miss Stinson and Dario Resta, a famous auto driver, will race for the championship of the universe, with the aviator flying directly above the motorist, the most sensational of all races in which the pair have covered a mile in 46 1/2 seconds, just 1-5 of a second slower than the world's record.

Resta's winning of the 300-mile auto derby at Indianapolis, Tuesday, adds one more big purse to his credit. In Chicago last summer, he won the 500-mile speedway event, as well as the 100-mile contest, in which he defeated three of the fastest drivers in the world, attaining an average speed of 97.5 miles per hour.

The Italian driver's rival, Miss Katherine Stinson, aviatix, was also victorious on Decoration day. Fighting a wind that blew near a gale through Beaver valley, New Brighton, Pa., Miss Stinson defeated Leslie Magee, on a motorcycle, over a one mile distance, before a crowd of 10,000 persons. The time for the distance was 1:08 3-5, three-fifths of a second short of the half-mile track record.

CATHOLICS ARE WARNED OF "INDECENT ATTIRE"

Bishop Mesmer Says Exposure of Arms and Shoulders Will Bar Women From Communion.

International News Service: MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 1.—Warning that women and girls "indecently attired" will be refused holy communion was received today by many Milwaukee Catholics. The warning came in the form of a letter from Bishop Sebastian Mesmer to the Catholic clergy of the diocese. It said in part: "Immodesty and indecency in the manner of dress worn by women and girls is a most distressing and ill-boding feature of modern society. It becomes the strict duty of Catholic clergy to warn the faithful against the evil which is the cause of so much sin and scandal. A sermon preached at an early date (within two or three weeks) in the Catholic churches of our diocese will help powerfully to prevent among our girls and women indecent exposure of naked arms, breasts and shoulders which has become particularly ostentatious during the warm summer season. Tell your people who dare to approach the holy table while indecently attired they will be refused holy communion. Let them cover their arms and shoulders, at least in church, as every Christian woman should."

IS STRICKEN IN CHURCH

Thomas F. Cantwell, Employee of Western Union Is Dead.

News-Times Special Service: INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 1.—Thomas F. Cantwell, 63 years old, who had been employed by the Western Union Telegraph Co. for 33 years, was stricken with heart trouble while attending services in the St. Phillip Catholic church. He died a few minutes later. Cantwell, who was an operator, worked his usual hours yesterday and apparently was in excellent health.

OFFER BLOOD TO SAVE RETIRED PASTOR'S LIFE

News-Times Special Service: GARY, Ind., June 1.—Relatives and former parishioners have offered their blood for transfusion to the Rev. Joseph Mercer Ayaan, retired pastor of the First Methodist church here, but without avail. Blood which is complementary to that of the aged minister is needed. In a transfusion operation, but of 20 persons who have volunteered, none met the surgeon's requirements.

NAMED FINANCE MINISTER. International News Service: BERLIN (via Sayville), June 1.—Count von Roeder, former secretary of state for Alsace-Lorraine, has been appointed minister of finance, succeeding Karl Helfferich.

IS NOW AT LONDON'S DRUG CO.'S STORE, AND IS TALKING TO THE PUBLIC WITHOUT CHARGE EACH DAY. SEE HIM AT ONCE, IF YOU HAVE STOMACH, LIVER OR KIDNEY TROUBLE IN ANY FORM.

READ THE FOLLOWING TESTIMONIAL. LITTLE 9-YEAR-OLD BOY PASSED A FEARFUL TAPEWORM, AFTER HE HAD TAKEN SECOND DOSE OF GREAT QUAKER HERB EXTRACT. HE LIVES IN WEST TERRE HAUTE, IND.

Quaker Fisher's work the very first day in South Bend shows that the great Quaker Remedies will soon be found in nearly every home in this city and the surrounding country. As early as nine o'clock yesterday morning there were people talking to him at the London Drug Co.'s store, which is his local headquarters.

Read the following case—it is re-

ALBERT F. MOSS, West Terre Haute, Ind., who expelled awful tapeworm.

changeable appetite, sick headaches, was nervous, tired and listless, often nauseated, would crave meats, was pale most of the time, and had not gained weight. "Several remedies had been given to the little boy, but none were successful. Then Quaker Herb Extract was gotten, and its use begun. After he had taken the second dose he passed a fearful tapeworm, complete with the head and neck, about 22 feet long. Think of it! It had been the cause of the little boy's distresses. "Quaker Herb Extract is a pure herb remedy. It is for any form of stomach, liver, kidney, bladder and blood trouble. It contains a positive germ and worm destroyer, which will expel worms of any kind. If any are in the system while it is being taken by either child or adult, it is absolutely harmless, guaranteed so under the Food and Drug Act of 1906. "Don't delay or ponder over such a vital subject as your health! I am at the London Drug Co.'s store, northeast corner Michigan and Wayne streets, from 3 a. m. until 5 p. m., and welcome the public, especially sufferers." Quaker Herb Extract is $1.00 a single bottle, three bottles for $2.50 or six for $5.00. Oil of Eucalyptus, a remarkable relief for aches and pains, is 50c a bottle. Sent anywhere by express on receipt of proper price.
